

Meet the Teacher

Erin Meats is a married mother of three young children. She recently moved to Ohio from Quincy, Illinois where she taught using the Musikgarten curriculum for the past six years. Before becoming a certified Musikgarten teacher she spent over two years in the program as a parent starting when her oldest daughter was just 6 months old. Erin is a licensed Musikgarten teacher.

Erin earned a BS in Music/Business from Quincy University with a double concentration in vocals and french horn. Her music background includes an internship with the Quincy Symphony Orchestra Association, Quincy Park Band Member, board member and treasurer for the Muddy River Opera Company, a french horn studio, youth choral conducting/choir director and Music Specialist for the Quincy Park District After School Program. Most recently she has started Erin's Music Studio in Upper Arlington, Ohio.